JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

MEMORIAL RESOLUTIONS TO LATE GEORGE PEABODY—SPEECH OF GOVERNOR GRAHAM.

On the last day of the session of the Trustees of the Peabody Fund suitable resolutions of respect were adopted to the memory of the great philanthropist.

In seconding the resolution, ex-Governor Graham, of North Carolina, spoke as follows:

Although funeral ceremonies and honors at the command of two great nations, with the cordial approbation of the people of both, have been already paid to the founder of this charity; and although, by your self and others, the language of eulogy upon his great act of beneficence has been exhausted, yet, I beg to detain you a moment in seconding the resolutions of the committee, reported by its venerable chairman. As the sole member of the Board who happens to be present from the vast region between the capital and the Rio Grande frontier—a region for the relief and assistance of whose inhabitants his last and greatest donation was made—I feel that silence would be an injustice approaching in criminality to a betrayal of my trust, and that the thousands of parents, and tens of thousands of children, not a few of them orphans, in this territory who are the objects of his bounty would feel that their voices had been suppressed in the general tribute of praise to his memory, and that they had no proper representatives in the Board of Trustees. In his name, and in their behalf, regretting the absence of our colleagues, Judge Bradford and Governor Aiken, of South Carolina, both, as I regret to learn, from ill health, I give my hearty consent to the declaration that for his well ordered philanthropy and princely munificence George Peabody deserves to be ranked with heroes and sages, the inventors of useful arts and the founders of States—those benefactors of our species whose labors or contributions have signalized eras in the progress of mankind—and that his name and memory should be cherished among those of the great Americans who have given renown to their county and done good for its people. Assuming further to speak in their name, I think the Governments of Great Britain and the United States, representing the sincere and generous feelings of the people of both countries, and the State and municipal authorities of Maine, in which his remains first reached the American shore, and of his native Commonwealth of Massachusetts, in which, by his patriotic direction, they were destined to final repose; as well as to you, sir, and the other members of this Board, who attended his final obsequies for the appropriate and imposing tributes of respect to his character, which were paid in the long progress from Westminster Abbey to his native town, which furnishes his Mausoleum, and shall perpetuate his name. Such offerings do honor to the living as well as to the dead. They manifest the public and universal sense of his noble charities, and encourage others to do like good works. They tend, moreover, to curb the worse elements of our nature, and the promotion of peace and good will among men. And as in his death two great Powers, of common language and kindred blood, have found a common subject of mourning, and, as it were, voyaged abreast and marched hand in hand to his tomb, so let us trust that in the dispensations of Providence the lately warring sections of our country will be chastened of any passions and jealousies, and be joined in her bonds of peace and union by a common admiration of his example and gratitude for his beneficence in all future time. If the North shall indulge in commendable pride in the reflection that he was their countryman, the South will venerate him as their neighbor, benefactor and friend, who poured oil into the wound of desolating war, and provided for the moral and intellectual wants of their children in the day of impoverishment and affliction.

NO LAWYERS IN CHINA.

The science of jurisprudence does not exist in China, and the office of advocate is unknown. In some of the edicts published by the Emperor, for the confirmation of sentences pronounced against great criminals there is sometimes reference to decisions made in preceding analgous cases, but it is made only with the view of illustrating the particular interpretation of a text in the code. Such reference to precedents cannot be considered to constitute what is understood by jurisprudence. Every magistrate charged with the administration of the law interprets it in his own way, and by what he regards as the general spirit of the legislature; but there is no special doctrine to secure them from any departure from it.

Measures are taken, however, not only to enable the magistrates to understand perfectly the laws they are called on to apply, but also to diffuse a knowledge of the code as far as possible, among the people at large. All officers and persons in the employment of Government are ordered to make it their particular study; and a special enactment of the code ordains, that at the end of every year, and in all localities, officers shall be examined upon their knowledge of the law by their respective superiors; and if their answers are not satisfactory, they are to be fined a month's pay, if they hold a high office, or receive forty strokes of the bamboo, if they are of inferior rank. All individuals, laborers, artisans and others, who, on occasion of their first offence (if committed by accident, or through the fault of other persons) shall be able to explain the nature and object of the law affecting them, shall be pardoned and released.

INSPIRATION OF THE BIBLE.—Seeing a man reject the inspiration of the Scriptures, while he said he maintained his belief in Jesus Christ and his redemption, I had compared him to some one who had a costly perfume in a glass vessel. He breaks the vessel, thinking that he can at the same time preserve the perfume, but he loses it all. Set aside the inspiration of the Scriptures, and all Christian doctrine will disappear. This is not a theory—I have seen it to be a fact; therefore the question is one of the greatest importance. I am not ignorant of the objections, of the difficulties that are raised, but the plenitude of the Divinity to be found in the Scriptures is too great to be in the least prejudiced by them. I say from the depth of my heart, "Thy Word is Truth." Not to believe that the Bible is God's message, is voluntarily to deprive one's self of all true wholesome, well founded knowledge about God and our future state. It is returning to darkness—it is to ruin our own prospects, and perhaps, alas! the welfare of many others with us.—Mrs. H. Ballington.

MEDICAL.

HENRY'S

CARBOLIC

CONSTITUTION RENOVATOR,

OR

BLOOD CLEANSER.

This medicine is known to the faculty as being the concentrated fluid extract of Sarsaparilla united with other valuable medicinal herbs, and is guaranteed as chemically pure.

SCROFULA AND CONSUMPTION.

This remedy is compounded expressly for purifying and cleansing the blood of all infirmities, going at once to the fountain-head of disease. It extinguishes

Tumors, Consumption, Syphilis, Skin Eruptions Salt Rheum, Boils, Rheumatism, Worm of Vitality, Scrofula.

We all know that the promiscuous vaccination indulged in during the late war bred the most villainous diseases. Vaccination pus was taken from the arms of many persons full of scrofulous sores.

Then of course the impurities of the scrofulous patient were absorbed in the blood of men otherwise without diseases, and both be ame in fected alike. Men, women and children throughout all the West are most woefully diseased from this cause, and know not, until a few months ago, the origin of it.

Henry's Constitution Renovator

Relieves the Entire System of Pain and aches, enlivens the spirits, and sends new blood

BOUNDING THROUGH EVERY VEIN.

It imparts a

Sparkling Brightness to the Eye,
A Rosy Glow to the Cheek,
A Ruby Tinge to the Lips,
A Clearness to the Head,
Brightness to the Complexion,
Buoyancy to the Spirits,
And Happiness on all Sides,

For all affections of the kindneys it is unsurpassed.

People have been rescued, as it were, from the very jaws of death, by a timely use of this great remedy.

EXTRACTS FROM VARIOUS LETTERS.

"Doctor, I was vaccinated in the hospital.—Before that I had no skin disease. Until I had a bottle of your "Constitution Renovator" sent me by Mr. Roper, of Columbus, Mo., I suffered tortures with running sores since I used two bottles I am all well except a small sore on the calf of my left leg, and that is getting well fast."

This from a lady.—"And now my skin is as clear and fair as a babe's. My complexion, thanks to your "Renovator," is beautiful.

"Yes yes, I may well say such relief was unknown to me before. Enclosed find five dollars for six bottles; two families here want to try it."

"I was very much troubled with syphilis.—Your remedy seems to be curing me fast. Send 4 bottles per Express."

"No more rheumatism. Three bottles of Constitution Renovator have made me a new man."

"Doctor, enclosed find $5. Please send me a supply. Two families here want to try your Constitution Renovator."

We have not space for more of the above extracts, but you can ask your neighbor about the remedy. Every one has something good to say, as it cures every time.

FOR ALL DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS, RETENTION OF THE URINE, &c.

And for Female Diseases,

Nervous Prostration, Weakness, General Lassitude, and Want of Appetite, it is unsurpassed.

CAUTION!—In ordering our remedy always place the number of our Post-Office Box on your letters. The new law in our New York Post-Office compels this.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

DR. YATES—HIS THIRD PARTY—ALLIANCE WITH HOLDEN.

The Wilmington Journal regrets the controversy going on between the "Charlotte Democrat and the Raleigh SENTINEL," and urges unity, harmony and united action against the party in power, who have oppressed the people and disgraced the State.

The controversy was not of our seeking; we think it was made in the interest of the moderate men, such as Holden, Victor Barringer, Andrew J. Jones, John Pool and Dr. Yates. We are sure we gave the Democrat no excuse for assailing us.

If Holden had not been plowing our heifer—the Democrat—the controversy could not have arisen.

The Doctor, we know, is a disciple of Holden; he went off with him at the Charlotte Convention in 1858, against Governor Ellis, and he has held the most intimate relations with him ever since.

The Doctor thinks he can "kill and make alive" like his old leader and teacher, the Governor. When Governor Vance sent Judge Osborne Andrew Johnson's union speech, he attempted to kill Vance for it by denouncing him as a traitor. When Governor Graham sent five sons in the late war and two of them wounded, lay bleeding on the battle field, the Doctor charges the father with treason or infidelity to the cause in which five brave sons were risking life, fortune and all, to defend. We learn these things from an old subscriber and reader of the Democrat. We learned from a reader of the Democrat that the Doctor called the late Governor Worth "our quaker Governor,"—the Doctor denies this, but he will not deny that he carped at and criticised his administrations, and used terms more condemnatory of Governor Worth than "quaker Governor."

The Doctor has been the apologist of Holden through all this plundering and stealing, which has bankrupted the State; a system of legalized pillage and plunder, which the Governor has not checked or attempted to check. Yet the Doctor expresses confidence in him, and is charged and suspected of entering into alliance with the Governor and other Radicals to organize a new party!

The following is public; we have it from the Standard of October 20th, 1869:

"Our sanctum was honored by a visit from W. J. Yates, Esq., of the Charlotte Democrat. We were the more glad to see him as we have now entered into an alliance with him to help cure the vexatious questions that are now troubling our people.—We regret to say that Bro. Y. isn't at all "hefty" on the Castalian."

God save the Doctor in alliance with Littlefield, Holden, the Standard and Pike!

We hear the Doctor has been deep in the move to form a new party in which Holden, John Pool, John Ragland, Judge Reade and others of like kidney, are to figure and lead. The Holden Pool idea is to unite the old Whigs and negroes against the carpet baggers and Democrats, and make the carpet baggers the scape goats for all the political sins of the Republican party.

We have been approached and importuned for six months on this subject. We have been offered the lead, captaincy, of the concern. We have stood out against the move, because we thought it unnecessary and ill-timed, especially at this peculiar juncture.

It is always hazardous to change your line of battle while the fight is going on. While the enemy are routed and flying, the only command should be, charge! and follow. It is no easy matter to organize a new party or a new government. Fools may destroy, but they cannot build them.

The new party would have been as corrupt as the present party; there was nothing to call it into life, but the political necessities of such men as Holden, Pool, Judge Reade, Rodman and the like.

Judge Reade, we learn, has been lately selling the Judicial ermine by attending political caucuses. Doctor Yates wants "all honest men who love the State, to stand shoulder to shoulder, hand in hand, together." That is just what we want; that is the line upon which we fight; but the Doctor wants nothing harsh said against his bosom friend, Holden, or his associates. He would have you be tender towards the personal character of the thieves, who have robbed the State; cautious in your speech, with your indignation pent up close.

We say, the man who looks with feelings of moderation and pent up indignation upon the carpet bag beggars, vagrants, and thieves who have plundered the State, feels not as we feel; feels not as the man who loves his State and country should feel.—To put on moderation is to wink at their frauds; not to turn loose your indignation is to encourage their audacity and crimes. And, pray, what have we said, what have we done, but what all who love their country should have said, and done? What all who love law, order, and justice, should say and do!

What, we ask, is our offence in the Doctor's eyes? This and nothing more, we would not stand, like he and Holden, patient witnesses of our country's wrongs.—This is the crime of which the Doctor has convicted us. We are ready; let judgment and execution follow conviction.

WAIT TILL YOU'RE ASKED.

Judge Reade is said to have taken his seat recently in a caucus of League meetings. On Tuesday Forkner, of Surry, in discussing a bill to provide for an election in August next, said he had the highest authority for saying that the tenure of office, in Judge Gholson's case, was the same as his predecessor, Starbuck. This declaration he again repeated on Thursday, whereupon Mr. Jones of Mecklenburg said, the highest Judicial authority in the State was the Supreme Court, and asked Mr. Forkner if he had any indication, direct or indirect, from the Supreme Court, that such was their opinion upon this point,—Mr. Forkner refused to answer the question! This is enough; he had as well have answered and informed Mr. Jones that he had it from the Court or members of the Court.

We understand that the Court, as men and politicians, are greatly exercised upon the formation of Dr. Yate's new third party.

SALE OF CADETSHIPS.

Five or six members of Congress, all of them carpet-baggers from Southern States, having been charged with selling the cadetships of their respective districts, a committee, has been appointed for the purpose of investigation of the charges.

Facts brought to light so strongly establish the fact that Whittemore, of South Carolina, had sold the cadetship of his district, that he has tried to resign his seat to avoid expulsion. The investigation is still progressing.

Hon. John T. Deweese, of North Carolina, is one of the implicated. A Washington paper, alluding to the matter, says, that Deweese traded his cadetship to Mr. Lassiter, State Senator from Granville, for the consideration that Lassiter should not run against him for Congress. How this may be we do not know, but we will look into the matter and ferret out the facts, if possible. Who can give us any light on the subject?

Deweese will have to make good sales of his "ayes and noes," to make any clear money by his position, if he goes on in these extravagancies. The amount he paid Jim Harris to keep him out of the field ate a considerable hole in his Congressional salary, and now, if it be true he has bought off the Hildee man, as reported, it looks like coming it pretty strong on him.

"GRAHAM AND AMONG 'EM."

"Straws show which way the wind blows.' When the Public Treasurer sold $180,000 of North Carolina Railroad eight per cent. bonds, at a little over half their value, he was asked who bought them. His answer was, "Graham and among 'em."

Here is the true history of the sale: W. H. Jones, & Co., put in a bid for Governor Graham for only $4,000 of the bonds at 80: Col. Heck a bid for J. M. Heck and friends at 60. George W. Swepson, a bid at 65 for all. Swepson got all the bonds but four, and yet the Treasurer said "Graham and among 'em," and not "Swepson and among 'em," bought the bonds. How ingenuous!

The Governor is imagined to have written to Littlefield as follows:

EXECUTIVE OFFICE,
Raleigh, Feb. 23, 1870.

My Dear General:—The condition of things is so deplorable, that I know not how to write about them. Upon my word as a christian Governor, I can hardly bear to think of them. I am oppressed and overpowered by everything that takes place. I can't call up and put into play the shattered remains of a once vigorous understanding.

Senitor Abbott telegraphs French (called by Reis, the "big Indian,") that you will be here Saturday; that's too late; the terrible crisis in our affairs has come and gone. Our party is scattered like the trees "when the hurricane has fanned the forest," and I, the chief Executive, lie prostrate and shattered like the sturdy oak blown up by the storm. I am without hope; I have nothing to live for; I am weak and worn down. I fell over a bench in my own house lately; when Turner hears of it I shall be published in the papers as having been to Pepper's. Turner is as insolent as ever; but for this "contumacious rebel" the prostrate people would have been quiet under the oppression of our administration and Shoffner's bill. I once took lessons in Mnemonics, but now I want to take lessons in oblivion and be taught the science to forget.

Sweet returned from his visit to you in the nick of time, Laflin, backed by Seymour and French, moved to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed repealing all the appropriation acts of the last session.—Senator Abbott's telegram, that you would be here next Saturday, and that "all was right," acted like a charm—acted like Andy Johnson's dispatch to repudiate the war debt.

You will see Sam Barnett in Washington. Turner says he has gone there to see you about the sale of the North Carolina Railroad, and whether you would prefer it sold for bonds or greenbacks.

Shoffner's friends say Sam has gone there to get Charley Winstead appointed in Crane's place, as Collector. You will find my friend Shoffner in the city; for his services on the military bill, I would prefer that he should have the Collector's place, but I know if Sam Barnett tells Grant about his selling that negro and selling the bones, Winstead will get the place. Davis, my Treasurer on the Fayetteville railroad, upon motion of Lassiter, got indefinite leave of absence Wednesday, because he had been summoned before the investigating committee. If he should get as far as Washington he can tell you everything. If you do not come by Saturday, your telegram will injure Abbott, Sweet and Laflin; the natives will declare it a carpet bag trick.

Now, dear General, adieu. I have said enough, though by no means all that lies on the mind of whom Turner would designate as

Your indulgent friend,
W. W. HOLDEN.

A "TRICKED" WOMAN IS KILLED BY A "REGULAR" DOCTOR. The march of improvement and the advance of learning has not driven from the mind of the negro that superstition which has ever characterized him, and he still believes in sorcery and witchcraft, a belief which has to a greater or less extent cursed every age. But an instance of this belief has recently occurred in this county, resulting fatally to the unfortunate believer. A "trick" doctor living below Enfield has recently asserted that all the blacks of that section have been tricked; a negro woman living near Enfield some two weeks ago concluded that she had been "tricked," sent for the Doctor in question, and received some medicine at his hands with which to be cured of the curse. She was cured—the next day she was a corpse, the effect of the drugs she had received at the hands of the pseudo doctor.—Roanoke News.

The Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE.

THURSDAY, Feb. 24, 1870.

The Senate was called to order at 10 o'clock.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

By Mr Long: Bill to amend chap. 270 laws of 1868-'9, concerning the powers and duties of State officers. Referred.

By Mr. Brogden: Bill to amend section 199, chap. 4, of the Code of Civil Procedure, concerning the attachment of property of non-residents. Referred.

By Mr. Respass: Resolution providing for adjournment sine die on the 14th of March. Lies over.

By A. H. Galloway, col.: the following resolutions, to wit:

WHEREAS, By a large vote of the General Assembly a bill has been passed repudiating the bonds of the State, in violation of the 6th section of the bill of rights of the Constitution; Therefore,

Resolved, That J. J. Menninger, Secretary of State, be instructed to file a petition of Bankruptcy in the office of A. W. Shafer, agent for Bankruptcy, in this city;

Resolved further, That the State of North Carolina is hereby declared Bankrupt. Lies over.

Mr. Robbins moved a reconsideration of the vote, by which the bill repealing the Fence law passed.

Mr. Welker moved to lay the motion on the table, which prevailed by the following vote:

YEAS.—Messrs. Beasley, Bellamy, Burns, Cherry, Colgrove, Cook, Forkner, Graham, Hyman, (col.) Hawkins, Jones of Mecklenburg, Jones of Wake, Lassiter, Lindsay, Long, Melchor, Moore of Carteret, Murphy, Respass, Scott, Stephens, Welker, Winstead and Wilson—24.

NAYS.—Messrs. Barnes, Brogden, Davis, Flythe, Galloway, (col.) Harrington; Martindale, McLaughlin, Richardson, Robbins, Smith, White and Whiteside—13.

A message was received from Gov. Holden, transmitting a report from the Auditor, in compliance with Senate resolutions, relating to the amount appropriated out of the State Treasury for ice for the use of the State Department, and upon what authority said expenditure has been made, and also an itemized report of expenditures which comes under the head of "contingencies" in the Auditor's annual report.

The report in reference to ice was read.

Mr. Love moved that the report be returned to the Auditor and that he be directed to report in accordance with the wording of the resolutions. Mr. L. said he did so because the report did not cover the requirements of the resolutions. He was the author of the resolution and drew them with more than ordinary care. He had two objects in view, first, to ascertain the sum expended, and, especially, in the second place, under what law the expenditure was made? He was clearly of the opinion that there was no law to authorize it, hence, in drawing the resolution he was careful to require the Auditor to give in the report "the words of the statute under which it was allowed." The report did not do this.—It was an artful, bare-faced evasion of the demand of the Senate. It was not an answer to the questions propounded. The report was an admission that ice had been bought, amounting to upwards of $600, for the use of himself and other officers in the Capitol during the year 1869, with the people's money, without any authority of law.

Mr. Moore, of Carteret, moved to lay the motion on the table, which prevailed.

AYES—Messrs. Beasley, Colgrove, Cook, Davis, Eppes, col., Forkner, Galloway, col., Harrington, Hyman, col., Hawkins, Jones, of Wake, Lassiter, Legg, Long, Martindale, Moore, of Carteret, Richardson, Smith, Stephens, White and Winstead.—21.

The report shows that ice was bought from Phil. Thiem as follows, to-wit:

For June and July,	$128.28
For Supreme Court in August,	61.81
For August and September,	339.24
Total,	$528.33

The Clerk proceeded to read the report on contingencies, when on motion of Mr. Martindale, its further consideration was postponed, and 50 copies of each report was ordered to be printed for the use of the Senate.

SPECIAL ORDER.

Bill to authorize the Williamston and Tarboro Rail Road Company to issue 1st Mortgage bonds.

Mr. Stephens moved a reconsideration of the vote by which the amendment (introduced by Mr. Hayes on yesterday) was adopted.

Mr. Martindale offered a substitute for the bill, considerable discussion ensued, finally the motion to reconsider prevailed, the substitute was voted down and the bill passed its third reading by the following vote:

AYES.—Messrs. Beall, Cherry, Davis, Eppes, col. Galloway, col. Graham, Harrington, Hyman, col. Hawkins, Jones, of Mecklenburg, Jones of Wake, Lassiter, Legg, Martindale, Melchor, Moore of Carteret, Murphy, Richardson, Respass, Smith, Stephens, Sweet, Welker, Whitside and Wilson—25.

NAYS.—Messrs. Barnes, Brogden, Burns, Blythe, Cook, Flythe, Hayes, Lindsay, Long, Love, McLaughlin, Robbins, White and Winstead—14.

On motion the rules were suspended and the bills to authorize elections to be held at Company Shops and at Chapel Hill, were taken up and passed their several readings.

FROM THE HOUSE.

Resolution relating to Public Printing, was adopted.

Bill to change the fees of witnesses, referred.

Bill for the relief of the Sheriff of Rockingham County, was placed on Calendar.

THIRD READING OF BILLS.

Bill to authorize the transfer of county charities to the Board of County Commissioners; passed.

Bill concerning elections and registration in the year 1870.

Mr. White moved to strike out the clause providing for an election of a Judge of the 6th Judicial district.

This proposition created considerable debate, Messrs. Robbins, Jones, of Mecklenburg, Graham, Melchor and Whiteside, spoke in opposition to it, and Messrs. Forkner, Smith and Welker advocated its adoption, the motion to strike out prevailed.

AYES.—Messrs. Beasley, Brogden, Blythe, Davis, Eppes, col., Flythe, Forkner, Hayes, Hyman, col., Hawkins, Jones, of Wake, Lassiter, Long, Martindale, Moore, of Carteret, Respass, Smith, Stephens, Sweet, Welker, White and Winstead.—22.

Mr. Love said at the last election the Solicitor for the 12th Judicial District, who was elected and who received five or six hundred majority over his competitor, was declared ineligible or banned, consequently was not allowed to hold the office, and his opponent was appointed to fill the office in his stead. He thought it would only be just and proper that the people of that District should have an opportunity to elect a man of their choice to fill that office, and moved to amend the bill so as to provide for the election of a Solicitor of the 12th Judicial District, which was voted down.

NAYS.—Messrs. Beasley, Brogden, Blythe, Davis, Eppes, col., Forkner, Hayes, Hyman, col., Jones, of Wake, Lassiter, Long, Martindale, Moore, of Carteret, Respass, Smith, Stephens, Welker, White and Winstead—19.

Mr. Love moved to amend the bill in reference to counting and comparing the vote at the close of the polls.

Mr. Respass moved to adjourn until 7½ o'clock. Lost.

Mr. Respass moved to adjourn until 10 morrow at 10 o'clock. Lost.

Mr. Respass gave 1 to amend the amendment of Mr. Love by striking out of the first section the provision providing for the election of Sheriff and Coroner.

The chair ruled (Mr. Sweet in the chair,) that it was not relevant to the question under consideration.

Mr. Moore, of Carteret, called the previous question.

A. H. Galloway, col., hoped the call would not be sustained, he desired to vote on the amendment offered by the Senator from Beaufort.

Mr. Stephens raised the point that a call for the previous question was not debatable, and, therefore, the Senator from New Hanover was not in order.

A. H. Galloway, col., replyed that as the Senator from Caswell had brought his chickens into the subject he would yield the floor.

The call for the previous question was sustained, and Mr. Love's amendment was adopted.

Mr. Respass moved to adjourn.

The chair ruled the motion out of order as the previous question had been demanded and sustained on the passage of the bill.

The bill finally passed its third reading.

NAYS.—Messrs. Bellamy, Galloway, col., Hayes, Martindale, McLaughlin, Respass and Smith—7.

On motion, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

THURSDAY, Feb. 23, 1870.

House called to order at the usual hour.

RESOLUTIONS AND BILLS.

By Mr. French: A resolution that the time provided for receiving contracts for printing, as provided in joint resolution, be and the same is hereby extended to the 25th day of March.

By Mr. Hunnant: A resolution to enable the Enrolling Clerk and Committee to complete the work before them.

On motion of Mr. Hunnant the rules were suspended and the resolution was adopted.

By Mr. Long of Chatham: A bill to amend the constitution of the State (striking out the 6th Section of the Bill of Rights.) Referred.

By Mr. Ragland: A bill for the relief of the people. Referred.

By Mr. McCanless: A bill in favor of the Sheriff of Stokes. Lies over.

By Thos. Sykes, col: A bill to provide revenue for public schools. Referred.

On motion of Mr. French, the rules were suspended and his resolution in regard to printing was taken up.

Mr. Malone moved to lay the resolution on the table. Lost.

Mr. Vestal moved to amend the resolution so as to make it read the "14th of March." The amendment was accepted and the resolution as amended was adopted.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

Bill to incorporate the Oaslow branch of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Co. After a long debate and the adoption of several amendments, the bill passed its third reading.

SPECIAL ORDER.

Bill to amend the act concerning the Inspectors of the city of Wilmington.

G. W. Price, col., argued at length in opposition to the bill.

Mr. McMillan advocated in remarks of length, the passage of the bill.

After some debate, the motion to indefinitely postpone, was put to a vote and adopted.

On motion of Mr. Seymour, the bill declaratory of the cases arising under the act providing for the settlement of the estates of deceased persons, was taken up.

Mr. Seymour explained the bill, and moved to concur in the amendments proposed by the Senate. Carried.

The bill in relation to official bonds, was next taken up, and passed its several readings.

Bill regulating the manner of applying for pardons, was next taken up, and passed its several readings.

Mr. Downing was announced as being detained from his seat by sickness.

Mr. Harris of Franklin moved to reconsider the decision of the House on yesterday, by which the motion to reconsider the bill making certain Railroad appropriations was postponed until Tuesday next.

Mr. Moore, of Chowan, raised the point that this being the day set apart for the consideration of bills from the Judiciary Committee and Code Commission the motion was out of order.

Mr. Jarris contended that the motion was in the nature of a privileged one, because, if not made to day, it could not be entertained to morrow, for the right to make it would expire by limitation. This had been the invariable ruling of the the permanent Chairman of the House.

Messrs. French, Seymour and Moore, of Chowan, argued in support of the point. Messrs. Jarvis, Harris, of Franklin, Harris, of Wake, contended that it was not well taken.

Here a discussion of about two hours duration arose, during which innumerable points and counter points of order were raised when,

Mr. French moved to adjourn; lost, yeas 7, nays 57.

After some debate, the chairman (Mr. Malone), decided that the motion to reconsider could be entertained and entered, but the consideration of the Code Commission bills being the special order, they must be first disposed of.

Mr. Argo moved that the special order be suspended, and the motion to reconsider be considered.

Mr. Justice moved to adjourn, lost yeas 19 nays 86.

The question recurred upon Mr. Argo's motion, when about ten million points of order raised and discussed to a great length. The debate included almost every thing but what was properly before the House.

[The hour being late the Reporter retired, and when reaching the door, counted about twenty members upon the floor at the same time, all clamoring to be heard on different points of order.]

At 1:30 P. M., Court adjourned.

To-morrow cases from the 10th, 11th and 12th Districts will be called peremptorily.

EXTREME DESTITUTION.—Our attention has recently been called to several cases of distressing destitution in this city, principally among the colored people. One of the cases, an old negro known about town as "Uncle Tobe" was visited at his miserable abode, Monday night, by our informant. The wind was piercing cold, and when he entered the hut he found the old negro lying in a corner on some rags, perfectly prostrated by cold, hunger and disease.—There were a few coals on the hearth, but there was not a mouthful of food or any article of furniture in the room. A lady in the neighborhood furnished some brandy to give him and some covering was procured and off it, made to administer to his wants. But it was too late, as we understand that during the night he died.

An old woman and two children had been living in the house with him, but Monday morning they left, being in a state of utter destitution.—Charlotte Observer.

MARRIED.

In Newbern on Wednesday 23rd inst, by the Rev. L. L. Hendren, Mr. GEORGE W. FOX, of Chatham, to Miss HATTIE HUDSON, formerly of Raleigh.

DIED.

On the 19th day December 1869, at the residence of his father in Alamance county, after a protracted illness, Capt. JOSEPH H. DICKEY in the 26th year of his age.

Capt. DICKEY was a gallant officer in the late Confederate army—was popular in his command and universally beloved by all his men. He was perfectly resigned to the inscrutable decree of an Allwise Providence and died "as one not without hope."

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees, and a portion of the citizens, of Faucett's Township in Alamance county held on the 9th day of February 1870, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Trustees of this Township have sustained a serious loss by the death of Capt. JOSEPH H. DICKEY, who was a faithful and indefatigable officer of said Board.

Resolved, That the citizens of this Township and of the county of Alamance, have been deprived by the death of Capt. J. H. DICKEY, of one of their most promising young men, his wife of a kind and affectionate husband, his parents of a dutiful son, and the community of an esteemed citizen.

Resolved, That two copies of these resolutions be forwarded to the widow and parents of the deceased; and that another copy be sent to the Raleigh SENTINEL, Hillsboro' Recorder and Christian sun, with a request that they be published.

PRATTS "ASTRAL" OIL.

UNLIKE MANY OTHER ILLUMINATING Oils, is perfectly pure, and free from all adulterations or mixtures of any kind. It emits no offensive smell while burning, gives a soft and brilliant light, and can be used with the same assurance of safety as sun. Chemists pronounce it the best and safest Illuminating Oil ever offered to the public; and Insurance Companies indorse and give upon consumers the use of the "Astral" Oil in preference to any other. It is now burned by thousands of families, and in no instance has any accident occurred from its use; a lamp filled with it, if upset and broken, will not explode. To prevent adulteration, the "Astral" Oil is packed only in the Guaranty Patent Cans, of 1 gallon and 5 gallons each, and each can is sealed in a manner that cannot be counterfeited. Every package with uncut seal we warrant. Be sure and get none but the genuine article, Pratt's "Astral" Oil, for sale by dealers everywhere, and at wholesale and retail by the proprietors

"The Norfolk Oil and Fish Guano COMPANY'S.

PHOSPHATIC FISH GUANO.

PRICE $40 PER TON OF 2,000 lbs., AT NORFOLK VA.

Manufactured at Norfolk Virginia.

This article is much superior to the Peruvian Guano as a fertilizer. It contains a much larger percentage of bone phosphate and soda, and nearly as much Ammonia, its effects upon the land will be seen for years.

The following extracts from certificates received from those who used it last year upon Cotton will have the effect to remove the prejudice produced by the use of manufactured fertilizers, and give confidence in this home made article.

H. Leberman, Esq., of Bertie county N. C., writes: "I have used your Phosphate Fish Guano in equal quantities side by side with Peruvian Guano and found the produce much in favor of your article, the weed was larger, Cotton heavier and the plant kept green through the dry Summer."

J. J. Horton of same State, writes to the same import. Our Circular for January 1870, contains these and other certificates in full.

Leach Brothers, a line of choice groceries, hay, candy, &c.

Panorama of New York, will exhibit at Tucker Hall next week. This work of art and of New York life and scenes, has been visited by hundreds and thousands of the citizens of our State, who have admired it exceedingly.

It is probable that a number of persons will be disappointed on turning to our local column this morning.

Prediction.—If Littlefield don't come Saturday, we predict the Governor will leave for Washington soon. If the mountain won't come to Mahomet, Mahomet will have to go to the mountain.

Is this So?—Two very gentlemanly looking strangers, Monroe and Brumley, came into our office on Wednesday evening and requested us to publish the following statement:

On Monday night, as they were walking up Fayetteville street, conversing together, they were approached by a policeman and Brumley was arrested by him, for "making a noise," as the policeman said. He started with him to the guard house, and Monroe went along with them. On arriving at the guard house not only was Brumley put in but Monroe also. They sent a note to Mr. Wm. Askew, who came to the guard house and became responsible for their appearance at the Mayor's office at 10 o'clock Tuesday. They went accordingly, and the Mayor having several other cases, told them to return at 4 o'clock; they went back at the time appointed, and the Mayor not being in, soon left. They saw the Mayor on the street, after leaving, and he told them he would send for them when he wanted them.

That night, while they were at a billiard saloon, they were approached by the Chief of Police, who told them the Mayor had concluded to fine them two dollars each, and asked them for the money. They refused to pay it, on the ground that they had had no trial. The Chief of Police then told them they must go before the Mayor at 8 o'clock. They said, it was eight o'clock then, and they were ready to go. The Chief of Police told them they need not go, but to stay there and he would go and see if the Mayor had come to his office, and would come back and let them know. He left and they saw no more of him.

Foreign Opinion.—Extracts from English Testimonials, giving evidence of the efficacy of "Brown's Bronchial Troches."

"I have derived greater benefit from the Troches, than from anything I ever tried." Broadwood Bowler.

Prima Tenore of the British Operatic Association, London.

"I never knew such a wonderful cure for Hoarseness."

W. Randall, Oxford Music Hall.

"I have tried your 'Troches,' and can testify to their efficacy," Charles Sloman, The English Improvisator.

"The Troches give great satisfaction."

T. W. R. Lee, Editor Loughborough Monitor.

"Very beneficial in clearing the Throat, when compelled to sing, though suffering from cold." Ainsley Cooke, of the "Royal Italian Opera," London.

Miss Louisa Pyne, of the "Royal Italian Opera," speaks of "The Troches" in the highest terms and uses them constantly to clear and strengthen the voice.

For Coughs, Colds, and Throat Diseases, the Troches are invariably efficacious

City Improvements.—Yesterday we noticed the restrictions in the advertisement for proposals to McAdamize Fayetteville and Wilmington streets, and gave what we believe the true reasons for the restrictions, and we are now still more confirmed that we were right, from the manner in which our article seemed to hurt.

On ordinary McAdamized roads the rule is to put the beaten rock nine inches deep on the centre, six or eight feet wide, and six inches deep to a width of four feet on each side. But streets would require the maximum of nine inches the whole width.

Now, what will it cost to lay Fayetteville street with beaten stone nine inches deep, from Capitol Square to the Governor's mansion? Have the Commissioners an idea of the proximate cost of this work? and have they any idea where the money is to come from? They certainly know that the property holders of the city are now taxed too high. They certainly remember that a large number of lots were advertised to be sold for taxes last Fall; and if they don't know it we do, that many persons had to stint their families to bread only, and others to sell household furniture, to raise the necessary amount to keep their homes from the hammer. It will not do to gauge the ability of all citizens to pay taxes, by the prosperity of that portion who are successfully engaged in business.—The burden don't fall on them so heavily as it does on the poor who have, perhaps, a small cottage to live in and a large family to support, and upon the renters, white or colored, who of course must pay higher rents in proportion to the increase of taxes on the property they rent.

We contend that the clay ought not, in the first place, to have been put on the streets, and we contend, further, that it ought to be taken off. The Commissioners have no right to tax the people for their own blunders; especially have no right to put out contracts and, by the restrictions imposed, drive off competition for the sake of putting the job in the hands of one or two, or half a dozen favored individuals.

N. B.—We repeat all we have heretofore said on this subject. To morrow, wind and weather permitting, we expect to allude to some of the other grand schemes on the tapis.

Correction.—Some time since, Prof. S. Adams Lee was announced to lecture at Tucker Hall in this city for the benefit of one of our Fire Companies. In the advertisement it was stated that the Lecturer was, "Professor of Belles Lettres in Warrenton Female College." This was a mistake. Mr. Lee was negotiating at the time for an engagement to deliver a course of lectures in that Institution, but from some cause, the arrangement was never completed, or, at any rate, was not carried into effect. He has no connection whatever with Warrenton Female College.

For the Sentinel.

University of Virginia,
February 21, 1870.

To the Editor of the Sentinel:

Sir:—A friend in North Carolina has directed my attention to the following paragraph in your paper of the 16th inst:

"Prof. S. Adams Lee.—The many friends of this accomplished gentleman and popular Lecturer, will be glad to learn that he has been invited, and has accepted the invitation, to deliver a course of Lecturers on the science of Astronomy, at the University of Virginia, during the coming Spring."

The "accomplished gentleman and popular Lecturer," Prof. S Adams Lee, is entirely unknown at the University of Virginia. He has not been invited to lecture here on Astronomy or any other subject. In the interest of truth, I ask the insertion of this note in your paper.

Very respectfully,
S. Maupin,
Chairman of the Faculty.

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 7, 1870.

Editor Sentinel, Raleigh, N. C.:

Dear Sir:—Please allow us to state that the freight on Shell Lime has been reduced over half of former rates, on the S. & R., R. & G., W. & W. and N. C. Railroads. This arrangement to last until 18th of March, and to urge upon your people the real value of this Renovator of the soil, and the importance of sending us their cash orders now, that they may realize the advantages of this liberal reduction in freights.

Grey Hairs, Begone!

TUTT'S IMPROVED LIQUID HAIR DYE is a perfect wonder. By its use the old becomes young again. It converts the grey head into a beautiful black or brown. It imparts a natural color to the grizzly mustache and whiskers, and gives to the hair and beard a softness and gloss, that the young beaux might envy.

Occupational Ailments.

Fresh, pure air is a vitalizing elixir. Whoever is debarred by circumstances from unrestricted access to this invisible, but powerful stimulant needs a medicinal invigorant of some kind.—The great object should be to choose the best. Popularity is a pretty good guarantee of merit in this scrutinizing and intelligent age, and tried by this criterion Hostetter's Stomach Bitters stands first among the invigorating and regulating medicines or the present day. To the wants of persons engaged in indoor employments, especially in crowded factories where even with the best possible ventilation the atmosphere is always in some degree polluted, this salubrious vegetable tonic is peculiarly adapted. The nature of the ingredients is no mystery. It consists of an absolutely pure diffusive stimulant, tinctured—or rather surcharged—with the fluid extracts of sanatous roots and barks and herbs. The pharmacopoeia has its tinctures, but what are they? The juice of only a single root or bark or plant is present in each. Not one of them combines the three properties of a tonic, an alterative, and an aperient. All these elements are blended in the Bitters; nor are these the sum of its medicinal recommendations. It is also a blood deparent and an anti-spasmodic.

The baleful effect which air that has been partially exhausted of its oxygen by frequent breathing produces on the vital organization, is notorious, and when to this devitalized atmosphere is superadded the mephitic vapor of hot air furnaces, it becomes deleterious and depressing in the extreme. To enable the system to bear up, even for a few hours each day against the debilitating influence of a vitiated atmosphere, a wholesome tonic and alterative is urgently required. This grand desideratum is supplied in Hostetter's Bitters, which as a strength-sustaining, health protecting agent has no rival either among official or advertised medicines.

Wednesday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

Washington, Feb. 23.—The Senate will concur in the House amendments to the disability bill.

The expulsion of Whittemore is looming in a formidable aspect. A great excitement exists. Whittemore's friends threaten that many more shall follow him.

Senate.—The Committee on Military and Naval Affairs were instructed to enquire into the expediency of abolishing West Point and the Naval schools, and the assignment of suitable positions to colleges throughout the country to teach the art of war.

The admission of the Mississippi Senators, provoked a long discussion. The colored Senator Revels was on the floor. The question turned upon the legitimacy of the credentials but no objection so far has been made on account of color. The credentials were finally received and the question at adjournment was upon their reference to the Judiciary Committee. The Republicans manifest no disposition to try for them and Revel's admission is a question of a few hours.

House.—Buringame's death was announced. The Utah bill was discussed.

Appropriations were considered and an amendment adopted allowing females to act as assistant examiners of patents.

Whittemore's case was resumed. He made a strong appeal under oath for further time. Butler, disavowing an intention to vote on the question, spoke as Attorney for Whittemore. A motion to grant him 20 days was defeated. A motion granting indefinite time was defeated by a vote of 105 to 53. The previous question was ordered; this gave Lynch an hour which he yielded to Whittemore for further speech.

The vote on the direct question will be taken to-morrow. Adjourned.

Thursday Evening Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

Washington, Feb. 24.—House.—Whittemore presented documents from the Governor of South Carolina accepting his resignation. The chair refused to recognize him as a member.—The resolution offered recites that Whittemore, late member, had disposed of West Point and Naval Academy appointments, contrary to law, and for a pecuniary consideration, and that he was unworthy of a seat in the House; the yeas and nays are progressing. The resolution will be almost unanimously adopted.

LATER.

The resolution was unanimously adopted, declaring Whittemore unworthy a seat in the House. Whittemore will appeal to his constituents for re-election.

Senate.—The disability bill, covering some 3,000 names, passed and goes to the President.

Stewart introduced a resolution declaring the expansion of currency inexpedient, which was adopted by a large majority.

"STRONG, LIBERAL, SAFE, AND OF ESTABLISHED REPUTATION. THE GLOBE OFFERS EVERY INDUCEMENT TO PERSONS DESIROUS OF MAKING PROVISION FOR THOSE WHOM THEY MAY LEAVE BEHIND."

PLINY FREEMAN, President.
LORING ANDREWS, Vice President.
J. A. BADENBURGH, 2d Vice President
H. C. FREEMAN, Secretary.

Managed by able men, thoroughly experienced in the business of Life Insurance; its business since its organization has exceeded that of any other Company for the corresponding period of its existence.

H. H. GOODLOE, General Agent for N. C.
DR. F. BURKE HAYWOOD, Examining Physician.
Gen'l. S. B. BUCKNER, Manager Southern Dep't.

The Globe has peculiar claims upon the Southern country, from having first introduced the non-forfeiting feature in all its policies. Its President, Mr. Pliny Freeman, was the inventor of the ten-year, non-forfeiture plan, and introduced it in the Company with which he was then connected.

The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash, without deduction.

To those desiring it, the Company will issue policies, registered and certified by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York, as "secured by pledge of public stock."

SUCCESS THE CRITERION!

THE BEST MANAGED IS THE BEST COMPANY!

DE SOTO MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
OF ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI.
JAMES P. LUCAS, President.

CAPITAL STOCK, (PAID UP,) $150,000.00!

Stockholders bound for Double the Amount of Stock!

$100,000 DEPOSITED WITH THE INSURANCE DEPARTMENT OF MISSOURI.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL CASH COMPANY IN THE WEST!

The Stock of this Company is owned by the Capitalists of Louisville, Ky., and St. Louis, Mo. It is emphatically a Western and Southern Institution.

The DE SOTO has no desire to exalt its merits over those of other good Companies, nor to prosper on the decline of others, laboring in the same fields, and for the same grand object. Confident of its equal advantages with others, of whatever age or standing, it is willing to leave honorably for success, and hopes to deserve the public confidence by its energy, industry, and liberal spirit.

From the Missouri Republican.

"Few Companies have started out with such gratifying and flattering prospects of success, and under such favorable auspices. The Company has been extremely fortunate in the selection of its Directory. Its President, James H. Lucas, needs not a word of commendation from us. He enjoys a general reputation as a gentleman of wealth, unquestioned integrity, practical good sense, sound judgment and splendid business capacity.

The Directors rank among the first class of our merchants, bankers and citizens, as men of capital, financial ability and experience; men of probity and unblemished reputation. In the character of such a Directory, the community have the best guarantee that the business of the Company will be prudently and judiciously managed."

Policies issued on all the popular plans and all Non-Forfeiting.

Policy-holders may travel by the usual modes of conveyance, either by land, river, lake or coastwise, in any portion of the United States and Territories, the settled portions of the two Canadas, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and in time of peace may cross and recross the Atlantic Ocean by the usual passenger routes to, and travel and reside within, any portion of Europe.

VALENTINES—SOMETHING NEW.

Owing to the fact that some who have received Valentines wish to reciprocate, and others who have not, wish to send some, that they in turn may receive, Cupid will allow them to be sent during the entire month of February this year. And in order to assist in this accommodating arrangement, I have just opened a new lot of sentimental ones, which will be sold at half price.

And $5,000 ready to pay a loss of No. 34,161, so soon as the party authorized to receive the money appears.

The Company has been well tested throughout the State, as to its promptness in paying her losses, reliability, &c.

DIVIDENDS PAID AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR, AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1868. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

Knickerbocker,	$16,84
Equitable,	17,44
North America,	21,16
Brooklyn,	21,09
Universal,	27,94
John Hancock,	18,27
The National,	63,43
The Ætna,	13,41

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It issued more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 589 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed nett assets amounting up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 19,337 new policies, more than any other Company, except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars, and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested nett assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."
